

Directions to the Museum & Tour Information

Address: 500 10th St. NW,
Atlanta, GA

Note: When using GPS, select 500 10th St NW

The Robert C. Williams Museum of Papermaking is located at 10th and Hemphill, on the main floor of the Renewable Bioproducts Institute at Georgia Tech, a large 5-story red brick building, located across the street from Rocky Mountain Pizza and Sublime Doughnuts. A large column with “Georgia Institute of Technology” stands at the corner of the property.

From the Airport or I-75/I-85 Northbound: exit at Exit 250 (Tenth Street - Fourteenth Street - Georgia Tech). Turn left at the exit light on Tenth Street. Go about  $\frac{3}{4}$  mile, crossing Hemphill Avenue. Turn LEFT into the first driveway. A small sign at the drive indicates the Robert C. Williams Museum of Papermaking.

From I-75 or I-85 Southbound: I-75: take Exit 250 (Sixteenth Street - Fourteenth Street - Tenth Street), I-85 take Exit 84 (17th Street - 14th Street - 10th Street). Follow the signs south on Techwood Drive to Tenth Street. Take Tenth Street westbound (turn right). Go about  $\frac{3}{4}$  mile, crossing Hemphill Avenue. Turn LEFT into the first driveway. A small sign at the drive indicates the Robert C. Williams Museum of Papermaking.

Parking: Please let us know in advance how many buses and other vehicles are coming so we can arrange parking passes. Large school buses should pull into the driveway and offload all students at the pedestrian crossing. Buses can then park in the lot. Buses should NOT attempt to drive around the fountain in the forecourt. Mini-buses, vans, and passenger vehicles may unload in the forecourt and then move vehicles to the parking lot.

On the Day of Your Tour: Please arrive promptly, and remember to bring your confirmation letter and the balance of your payment. Checks should be made payable to Georgia Tech. We have no lunch facilities available, but we can advise you about parks and restaurants located nearby.
